

Husband's Commitment

Because I know that God's will for our marriage is good, well pleasing and perfect, I hereby reaffirm my marriage vow to you.

As the leader of our home, I acknowledge and accept my responsibility as the family's loving servant. As such, I promise to be faithful to you.

I confirm your dignity, honor and worth as God's gift to me. To the degree that I have failed to minister to your needs in the past, I ask your forgiveness.

My desire is for our marriage to continue to mature. I am asking for God's grace to abound, that we may grow deeper in our love for Christ and for each other...

I love you.

Wife's Commitment

I hereby reaffirm my commitment to you as your wife. I vow before God and these witnesses to stand by you, respect you, and lovingly follow you until death parts us.

I pledge, by God's grace, to be patient, kind, forgiving and loyal to you.

I know that you and I are one flesh by God's design and that our marriage is ordained by Him. To the degree that I have failed to minister to your needs in the past, I ask your forgiveness.

My wholehearted desire is for us to continually grow together in our love for Christ, and in harmony with God's expressed will and in obedience to His Word...

I love you.
